4-H & FFA SPONSORED
CROSBY COUNTY SHOW BARN
CROSBYTON, TEXAS
JANUARY 13-16, 2016

Dear Exhibitor,

As president of the Crosby County Livestock Show it is my pleasure to extend an invitation to you to attend and participate in our 2015 show.

Your participation and support over the years has enabled our show to become one of the most successful county shows in West Texas. Your participation and enthusiasm creates excitement that pulls spectators to our county show.

Plan now to attend and compete in the 2015 show and make this year's show the best ever.

Sincerely,
Ryon Swink, President

W.F. Wheeler Award

This award is presented annually at the Crosby County Stock Show to one 4-H or FFA individual that has exhibited courteousness, helpfulness and sportsmanship throughout the entire year. All Crosby County Livestock Show directors will serve on the selection committee. The W.F. Wheeler award will be presented to the recipients on Saturday prior to the auction sale.

W.F. Wheeler Award: Crosby County Extension Agent and FFA Advisors will nominate students who have exhibited courteousness, helpfulness and sportsmanship throughout the entire year. The agent and instructors will select the recipient.

GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS

1. ALL GENERAL RULES AND REGULATIONS... will be strictly enforced: such as entry deadlines and arrival of animal and proceeds.
2. ELIGIBILITY: * Exhibitors must be 8 years old, in the 3rd grade and meet 4-H or FFA membership requirements, own and exhibit an animal under the supervision of a Crosby County Extension Agent or Ag. Science teacher, be enrolled in public or home school in the present year and not have shown in any other local county show and must be an active member in 4-H or FFA. No exhibitor will be eligible to participate in the Crosby County Livestock Show if they have participated in or have plans to participate in any other county show or any local shows that limits its entries to exhibitors from particular schools or FFA/4-H chapters, and the exhibitor receives money or prizes not to include ribbons and trophies for placings. This rule excludes jackpot show or any show in which all Crosby County exhibitors are eligible to participate. In such cases where the exhibitor(s) are from divorced or separated families at least one of the parents must reside in Crosby County, or the exhibitor is attending a school outside the county, but lives in Crosby County and have met all criteria concerning 4-H membership in accordance with and under the supervision of the Crosby County Extension Agent and planning to exhibit animals in Crosby County, may participate in the Crosby County Show only. No other county or local shows. Animal(s) must be housed in Crosby County or within one of the three county school districts.
Exhibitors between 7 & 8 years old who do not meet 4-H/FFA eligibility will validate under the Crosby County Junior Livestock Association. It will be the responsibility of the President or Superintendent to validate those animals, collect entries/fees, and supervise projects.*
3. CERTIFICATION OF ELIGIBILITY: If a student is ineligible as determined by the school, or home school, then the student and the project are also ineligible. Certification of eligibility (home school) these exhibitors must abide by all general rules and regulations as exhibitors attending public school systems. Records provided to the state by parents or guardians concerning test grades, semester grades or any scholastic eligibility, should be available to the Crosby County Agents office prior to show date in accordance with eligibility rules.
4. LIABILITY: The show is not responsible for any loss or damage that may occur.
5. OWNERSHIP: All lambs, goats, hogs and steers must be owned by state validation deadlines - steers prior to July 1, lambs & goats prior to November 1. Hogs must be owned and validated prior to November 30th. All 4 species must be state or county validated to exhibit in the County Show. Fryers must be owned and validated at least 30 days before the show.
6. ENTRY: Entry fees for livestock projects are due at the time entries are submitted to the advising agent/instructor. An entry fee of $15.00 for steers & heifers, $15.00 for swine, $15.00 for sheep, $15.00 for goats, $8.00 for rabbits, $10.00 for farm mechanics projects. All animals and exhibitors must be pre-entered on or before November 30; all chapters/club entries should be combined to one package and should be post marked or hand delivered to the general superintendent of the show, by the last business day in November at 5:00pm. Advising agents/instructors have the right to set an earlier entry deadline. Rabbit entries due on or before December 13.
7. ARRIVAL OF ANIMALS: Swine will arrive prior to 4:00 p.m. on Wednesday; weigh in starting at 4:00 p.m. to 6:00 p.m. Lambs and goats will arrive prior to 10:00 a.m. on Thursday; weigh in to begin at 10:00 a.m. to 11:00 a.m. Steers will arrive and weigh in beginning at 11:00 a.m. to 12:00 p.m. Thursday. Rabbits will arrive at 8 a.m. Thursday.
8. NUMBER OF ANIMALS: An exhibitor may show and place a maximum of 4 barrows or gilts, 4 lambs, 4 goats, 2 heifers, and 4 steers, 3 fryer rabbits. Maximum number of breeding rabbits will be 2 entries per class/division.
9. SHOWMANSHIP: When an exhibitor has more than one animal in a class, the exhibitor may secure assistance; however only boys and girls who are eligible and have an entry in the show will be allowed to assist in handling livestock in the show ring. An exhibitor must show his own animal unless sick or is excused by advisor or county agent. Showmanship will be judged by the judge of the specie being exhibited. Seniors 14 and older, Junior 8-13, by show date. Junior and Senior Showmanship winners will be awarded in lambs, cattle, goats, swine and rabbits.
10. STALL ASSIGNMENTS: Exhibitors and advisors will receive stall assignments from Department Superintendents upon arrival. No exceptions.
11. CARE OF STALL AND ANIMALS: All bedding will be supplied by the CCLSA. Outside bedding will be allowed, but must be same as that provided by the CCLSA. (ie. wood shavings)
12. REMOVAL OF ANIMALS: No animal will be removed from show barn without consent of general show superintendent, the show specie superintendent and the exhibitor's advisor. Failure to adhere to this rule will result in disqualification of animal from the livestock show.

13. WEIGHT: All animals must comply with class weights. You are allowed one re-weigh, if an animal is too light or too heavy to be in the show. There will be NO OTHER RE-WEIGHTS.
14. PREMIUM AUCTION: 59 swine, 30 lambs, 20 steers, 50% of goats not to exceed 10 and 50% of fryer rabbits not to exceed 5; will sell. Each exhibitor may receive premium on 2 animals (lambs, swine, beef or rabbits) in the premium auction. Steers, swine, lambs, goats and rabbits will be auctioned on percent (according to number of animals in one class). When an animal is pulled from the premium auction, the next animal moves up. No animal will receive premium unless listed on premium sheet. All floor bid animals will be shrunk 3%.
15. INTERFERENCE: The CCLSA will not tolerate any un-sportsman-like conduct or any violation of the rules by the exhibitor, parents, or advisors. The penalty for such inappropriate actions will result in forfeiture of all trophies and ribbons.
16. PROTEST: Any protest must be in writing accompanied by $25 and addressed to the Superintendents and President of the show. The present show directors will air this protest and if valid, refund the money; if invalid, the management will place the forfeit in the general fund.
17. If an exhibitor has more than 2 animals eligible for the premium auction, and does not notify the superintendent by 30 minutes after steer show as to which animal he wishes to auction, it will be left strictly to the discretion of the superintendents which 2 animals will be in the premium auction. Exhibitor must comply with superintendents wishes.
18. Any animal showing any sign of pregnancy will not be allowed to show. Exception - Breeding Heifers.
19. Premium auction will be held at Pioneer Memorial Building, Crosbyton on Saturday at 7:00p.m.
20. Method of determining weight for classes will be live weight (not shrunk weight) as done by official weigher.
21. The showing of unethically fitted livestock and the use of diuretics or any unapproved medication is prohibited.
22. Scales for the swine and sheep weigh-in will be rotated between the Crosby Co. 4-H and the three FFA chapters.
23. All exhibitors must participate in at least one of three designated work days to be eligible for the premium sale and or add-on money.
24. Any issues related to eligibility or ethics not explicitly stated will be referred to the Texas Livestock Ethics Policy. All exhibitors and parents should fully read the ethics policy before signing at validation.

GUIDELINES FOR 2016 PREMIUM AUCTION

Saturday 7:00 pm

1. Buyers will bid for the highest dollar per head for the premium on prize winning livestock.
2. Premiums on livestock will go to the highest bidder.
3. Premium bid does not include market value of animal. Premium bid is only that money which a buyer wishes to contribute beyond market value of the animal.
4. Ownership of the animal does not change hands. Exhibitors will own their animals before, during and after the premium auction.
5. Following the premium auction, exhibitors may wish to sell to packer at floor bid, take their animal home or sell their animal to a local buyer for slaughter or other use.
6. 4-H and FFA exhibitors may receive premium on only 2 animals through the premium auction. Others must be scratched if 3 or more qualify by their placing.
7. Packers will be present to bid on floor price for those animals to be marketed to the packer following the premium auction. The opinion rests with the exhibitor to sell to packer, take home or other.
8. Steer Breed Champions and Reserve Breed Champions do not move up in sale order.
9. Request for funds (bills) to the Premium Buyers and Add-On's Contributors are submitted (mailed) no later than February 1st of each year following the conclusion of the Crosby County Livestock Show.

CROSBY COUNTY LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION SCHOLARSHIP

Deanna Logan - Chairperson

FOREWORD: The Crosby County Livestock Association was chartered in the late 1950's by a group of people who were willing to give their time and money to promote the youth of Crosby County. Through the years it has flourished and many of the present directors and volunteers of this organization are the children and grandchildren of the original organizers as well as past participants in the Crosby County Livestock Show. It is in the spirit of these people and the support of this community that we offer this scholarship.

1. DESCRIPTION OF THE AWARD

The Crosby County Livestock Association Scholarship awards up to $2,000 in scholarships to be given each year at the end of the Crosby County Livestock Show.

The award will be given in increments over the first two semesters of college; applicant must be a graduating senior from one of the three high schools in Crosby County or be a graduating home-schooled student who resides full time in Crosby County and an active member of 4-H or FFA.

The first increment will be given when the award winner presents proof of ENROLLMENT with at least 12 semester hours. The second part of award will be issued after proof of completion of at least 12 semester hours with a minimum GPA of 2.5.

Should the recipient fail to enroll as a full time student in the following fall, or does not enroll; the scholarship will be awarded to the alternate.

2. CRITERIA FOR SELECTION OF RECIPIENT

SCHOLARSHIP: the recipient should have been successful academically in a high school career with all indications pointing to a successful college experience. They should display an enthusiasm for learning and a sincere educational career. The recipient must have participated in the CCLS at least 2 of his/her 4 high school years.

SERVICE: the recipient should display a willingness and desire to serve both in school and community. They should be committed to the idea of volunteering time and abilities to help others.

LEADERSHIP: the recipient should display initiative in school and community activities. Student should exhibit the trait of a good leader, one that is willing to yield their personal interest for the interest of others.

CHARACTER: the recipient should exhibit respect for others and should be actions, display such traits as integrity, reliability, honesty, responsibility, cooperation, courtesy, fairness and tolerance.

PATRIOTISM: the recipient should show a genuine concern and respect for country and for the ideals upon which it was founded.

3. SELECTION OF RECIPIENT

A selection committee will be made of seven members composed of one representative of the high school from each town in the county and one member of the Crosby County Livestock Association from each area of the county, the final member of the committee will be the chairman of the Scholarship Selection Committee an elected member from the Crosby County Livestock Association.

Applications for the scholarship will be accepted until thirty days prior to the Crosby County Livestock Show; the committee will meet on a date set by the Chairman of the Selection Committee and the winners of the award will be announced during the Sale of the Crosby County Livestock Show. The committee will pick three people with the first two to be the recipients and the third as an alternate.

CROSBY COUNTY LIVESTOCK ASSOCIATION

Article VII

Section 2. SHOW RULE CHANGES/AMENDMENTS

The Board of Directors of the CCLSA may amend show rules. These rules must be submitted in writing to the Board of Directors. Rule changes must be sent to the Board of Directors by the membership no later than sixty (60) days from the previous show. All rules received after sixty (60) days from the previous show will not be considered. To be passed, any amendment to the Show Rules must carry by a majority vote of the Board of Directors of the CCLSA.
